New Proposal Offered in Steel Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A mediation team in the steel haulers' strike has come up with a new proposal on the disputed issue of paying the truckers for waiting at steel mills. The strikers and trucking firms face a vote on it this week.

A steel industry publication says the strike, in its second month, is having serious economic effects on steelmakers.

The time truckers wait for loading and unloading—a present without pay—has become the key issue in the strike. The new proposals would give the truckers $13.70 an hour after a four-hour wait. The proposal, arrived at in weekend sessions by a seven-state mediation panel, will be submitted to the National Steel Carriers Association, a breakaway group of independent trucking firms, the Teamsters Union and the strikers.

The two trucking groups rejected the original agreement giving the truckers $10 an hour after two hours. Truckers in most areas approved the plan. Steel Magazine reported that the strike has forced curtailments at steel finishing mills and fabricating plants and caused layoffs or short-term employment for 15,000 to 20,000 workers.

The weekly journal said a Pittsburgh area mill estimated it lost orders for 20,000 tons because it couldn't make deliveries. Another major producer set its loss at 40,000 to 60,000 tons. Mill deliveries for the industry during September were off 16 per cent from August.

Highways in the strike-torn states were reported relatively calm over the weekend in contrast to the violence earlier when scores of truck drivers were shot at, stoned and beaten.

3 Shot to Death at Texarkana

TEXARKANA (AP) — Three men were shot to death Sunday afternoon after an altercation in a home near Marietta about three miles east of here.

Authorities identified the victims as William Martin Jr., 48, of Lewisville, Ark.; Jimmy D. Sullivan Sr., 56, of Mandeville, and his son, Jimmy D. Sullivan Jr., 32, also of Mandeville.

Sheriff Leslie Greer of Miller County said Mrs. Lydia Sullivan, 58, the elder Sullivan's wife, had been charged with manslaughter in the death of Martin. Greer said Mrs. Sullivan was released on $1,000 bond.

Greer said Martin apparently shot the two Sullivans and was then shot twice with a .22-caliber rifle by Mrs. Sullivan.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Chi Chi, an 18-month-old Siamese cat, has a hobby her owners wish she would abandon. She brings home poisonous snakes. Chi Chi started it by bringing in a 16-inch diamond-back rattlesnake in September. Then came another diamond-back of about the same size in early October.

She topped it off this week with a 12-inch moccasin. "Right in my kitchen she brings them," Mrs. Stuart Lang said. "She's so proud."

Six Killed on Arkansas Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Six persons were killed in traffic accidents on the Arkansas highways during the weekend. Two were killed in a one-car accident Sunday and the other four, all young persons, were killed in four separate accidents.

State Police identified the victims as Eddie Ray Rhodes, 41, of Altheimer; Robert Fox, 45, of Swan Lake; Linda Garrett, 18, of Havana; Herman Wiggins, 19, of Van Buren; Mark Bowen, 9, of Huttig and Patrick Lynn Stiles, 18, of Little Rock.

Authorities said Rhodes and Fox were killed in a one-car crash on Arkansas 79, about six miles south of Stuttgart. Officers said the car in which they were riding struck a bridge railing. State Police said they were unable to determine the driver of the vehicle.

Authorities said Miss Garrett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Garrett of Havana, was killed in a one-car accident Sunday on Interstate 40 about 13 miles east of Clarksville. Officers said she was a passenger in a car driven by Mike King, 21, of Clarksville.

Wiggins was killed in a one-car crash Sunday morning on Arkansas 220 about two miles west of the highway's intersection with Arkansas 59.

State Police said Wiggins apparently lost control of the car. Herschel Williams, 19, also of Van Buren, was reported in fair condition at a Fort Smith hospital.

Bowen was killed Saturday night when he was struck by a car inside the Huttig (Union County) city limits. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvis Bowen of Huttig. Officers said the youth apparently ran into the

In a further effort to press South Vietnam's "other war," the U.S. Embassy announced plans to increase to 41 from 21 the number of American relief experts trying to help civilian refugees. Much of the job will be to make sure funds and supplies meant for the refugees get to them and not to corrupt Vietnamese officials.

The refugee program has come under sharp attack in the U.S. Senate, notably by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., chairman of the Senate Judiciary subcommittee on refugees. The United States is paying nearly $25.5 million in refugee aid money.

Official figures show 700,000 refugees in camps or shelters but authorities say twice as many may be homeless because of the war.

U.S. pressure for reform is believed to include placing Thieu's junta on notice that the United States would not tolerate any attempt to brush aside the country's newly elected Congress in favor of rule by decree.

A qualified source described both Thieu and Ky as reform-minded but would not extend this description to the rest of the officers making up the present military government.

Officers said Stiles' vehicle collided with a car driven by Edward Shippen, 50, of Memphis. Shippen was reported in serious condition at a Malvern hospital.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MR. and MRS. GARY DEAN CLARK

The wedding of Miss Beckie Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Butler, and Gary Dean Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Clark, all of Hope, was solemnized on September 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church.

The Rev. Clyde Johnson officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The candlelight setting was further enhanced by white doves among garlands of Southern smilax, and the pews were marked with white tapers, greenery, and white satin ribbon. Mrs. Arthur Strech, organist, played a program of pre-nuptial music and accompanied the vocal soloist, Miss Donna Connelly. She sang "Because" before the bride entered the sanctuary and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt on a prie-dieu. Candles were lighted by Debbie and Greg Butler, sister and brother of the bride.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white peau de sole fashioned with a lace bodice and long sleeves that ended inilly points over her hands. With the scalloped neckline the bride wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, as her only jewelry. Satin-covered buttons at the shoulders of the dress held her train in place, and the shoulder-length veil fell from a headpiece of satin roses and tulle. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white pompon mums and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Miss Karen Weiner was the bride's only attendant. She wore a yellow dress of peau de sole designed with an Empire waistline and a full-length skirt. On her head was a yellow pill box hat with yellow tulle, and she carried yellow mums with yellow satin streamers.

Charles Ray Clark served his brother as best man. Ushers were Billy Bob White and Roger McLeiland of Texarkana.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Butler was attired in azalea pink with a white hat trimmed with the same shade of pink. Her other accessories were black, and she pinned a mauve cymbidium orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Clark, mother of the groom, wore pale blue with matching accessories, and her cymbidium orchid was a complementary shade of green.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was overlaid with yellow net and matching satin and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Punch and mints were also served from this table. The groom's table was covered with yellow linen, and chocolate cake and coffee were served from it.

Members of the house party were: Mrs. Oscar Rogers, Longview, Tex., aunt of the bride; Misses Sue Brunfield and Ann Mathison, both of Texarkana, and Miss Belinda Butler, all cousins of the bride; Misses Peggy Rowe and Lila McCorkle, cousins of the groom; and Misses Linda Huckabee and Cynthia Trout.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Dallas, the bride wore a two-piece ensemble of green and blue with black accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet pinned at her shoulder.

The newlyweds are now at home at 215 East 15th in Hope. She is employed by the Arkansas Farmers Union in Hope and he works at the Lone Star Ordinance Plant in Texarkana.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

REVOLVING DOOR MARRIAGES Dear Helen: Unlucky at love, that's me.

I married the first time at 15. He was 17. We learned to drink coffee together, but my husband went on to beer. He wouldn't work, but he stole. When he went up the second time, I got a divorce.

My second husband compared me all the time to his first wife, and he also cheated, and hit the bottle heavy.

My third was so tight he even bought the groceries and he starved me half to death. His mother kept after him till we divorced. He drank too.

Now I am going with a man who wants to marry me. He drinks too, but not that much. He also has a mother. She does not think much of me on account of the divorces. He makes good money, when he works, but not steady. He's terribly handsome, as were all my husbands.

I'm lonely without a man and he seems the best I've found yet. Should I or shouldn't I? THREE TIME LOSER.

Dear Loser: "The best you have found yet" still may be none too good. Chronic lemon pickers hardly ever end up with plums, unless they face the law in themselves.

to follow the pattern. I'd guess you're a collector of handsome, "charming" lap dogs and when you find they do not train easily, out they go. What's the matter? Are you afraid of real men? H.

Dear Helen: When we got married, my husband gave me three years to finish my nurse's training and get a job, after which he said he would leave me. It's been two years, and he has not changed his mind, though I tried every way I know to make him love me. He even ignores our son. He's out more than he is home.

It started before we were married. I went out on him just once because we had a fight. Nothing happened, but I didn't tell him. When he found out, he got even by making me pregnant. He was not going to marry me, but Uncle Sam got on his back so he did, to avoid the draft.

That's when he gave me the three year plan. I know I was wrong for not being completely truthful, but I deserve this kind of punishment? CONNIE.

Dear Connie: You do not deserve this kind of husband! Maybe I'm wrong, but he sounds to me like a jealous, vindictive, convincing draft dodger and if he doesn't reform, I'd cut his three year plan off at the pockets. Then, hopefully, Uncle Sam might make

Sunset Is Time for the Wedding

By FRANCES LEWINE Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — Lynda Johnson and Marine Capt. Charles Robb have picked romantic sunset time for their Dec. 9 White House wedding and have ruled out television coverage of the ceremony.

The Rev. Canon Gerald McAllister, a personable young Texas Episcopal clergyman, will perform the marriage, the White House also announced Sunday.

Guest list for the East Room nuptials of the President's elder daughter will be held to about 500 persons. That's 200 less than Lynda's sister, Luci, invited to her Aug. 6, 1966 cathedral wedding and White House reception. This will be the first time in 53 years that a presidential daughter has been married in the White House. The Johnsons announced that "lack of space" will limit coverage by news media.

Only a pool of reporters will be permitted to cover certain portions of the event. There will be no television coverage of the wedding ceremony itself, a White House spokesman said.

Lynda and her young Marine fiance have set their Saturday wedding for 4 p.m., about a half hour before sunset.

Elizabeth Carpenter, press secretary to Mrs. Johnson, said the time of the wedding would be "an hour that suits the couple—and it also depends on the honeymoon destination," a locale that remains secret.

In choosing the minister, Lynda

Dear Helen: About the bride whose wedding was annulled immediately after the marriage, before any of the gifts were used. You said a bridal consultant advised writing notes or telling her friends the gifts would soon be returned.

Has she ever had an experience of such nature? It's bad enough losing a husband. Why compound sadness with the trouble and expense of returning presents? I think the bride should keep them in appreciation of her friends. H.L.A.

Dear H. Most of the Brides friends will agree with you but I think they should be given a choice. H.

da didn't look far from home. She picked the tall Texas soldier-gyman, who only two weeks ago offered prayers for Lynda and Charles at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church in Fredericksburg, Tex., 16 miles from the LBJ Ranch.

He was so surprised when Mrs. Johnson called Saturday to ask him to perform the ceremony, "we didn't even discuss the details."

Two weeks ago when news men asked him if he would preside, he replied, "No. That's a job for a bishop."

The Rev. Mr. McAllister, son of W. W. McAllister, mayor of San Antonio, has known the President's family about four years—ever since he presided at the laying of a cornerstone at the St. Barnabas Church.

Since about a year ago, when he became "supply priest" at the church, which has no regular minister, the Rev. Mr. McAllister has seen the first family frequently. The President often goes to St. Barnabas when he is spending weekends at his ranch.

The minister is anxious about the required ministerial counseling session required of all couples marrying in the Episcopal church. Such sessions are usually conducted by the minister who will preside over the ceremony, but the Rev. Mr. McAllister said Sunday, "it's not possible for me to handle it then perhaps someone in Washington could."

The Rev. Mr. McAllister attended Lynda's alma mater, the University of Texas, and was graduated from Virginia Theological Seminary in 1951.

Broyles Is Proud of Porkers

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas coach Frank Broyles said Sunday that although his Razorbacks made too many mistakes against Baylor he was "proud" of the Porkers' 10-10 tie at Waco, Tex.

"I was proud for two reasons," said Broyles on his television show. "They reared up when Baylor moved the ball and they moved 60 yards in four minutes against the wind to get the tie."

Bob White's 29-yard field goal gained the Porkers the tie with less than a minute to go.

Arkansas had started on its own 20 with slightly more than four minutes showing on the clock. Quarterback John Elchler had passed for 15 and 14 yards to tight end Mike Sigman and had connected on a nine-yard pass to David Cox. The sophomore from Stuttgart also reeled off an 18-yard gain as the Porkers moved to the Baylor 24.

Elchler was shaken up and Gordon Norwood, a junior from Pine Bluff, picked up 14 yards to the 10. Tailback Mike Henderson reached the six and Elchler re-entered the game. Baylor's Greg Pipes dropped him for an 11-yard loss and Arkansas had to play for the tie.

"They play was supposed to have been a pass to Sigman," said Broyles. "Baylor blitzed eight men and we blocked all but one... Pipes."

Broyles said he might have tried for the touchdown if Arkansas had already lost in Southwest Conference play.

"If you're about to get beat, then a tie is better than a loss," Broyles said. "There was no question about liking it. We felt like with fourth and 12 that there wasn't much chance of scoring."

Arkansas got a quick 7-0 lead, marching 27 yards for a touchdown following an interception by Tommy Trantham. The big play was a 22-yard pass from Elchler to wingback David Dickey. Dickey scored from the two.

Broyles said Arkansas had a chance to take charge of the game on their next possession. Defensive tackle Alvin Jones recovered a Baylor fumble at the Bears' 33 but Russell Cody fumbled the ball back two plays later.

"If we had taken it in and scored it would have given us the momentum," Broyles said. "If we can quit fumbling and stop the turnovers we will be a good football team."

Arkansas lost three fumbles and had one pass intercepted. The Razorbacks, who started ten sophomores against Baylor, have fumbled 13 more times and have lost six more fumbles than last year's team through the first four games. They have suffered 12 turnovers, compared to only three by the 1966 team in its first four games.

"In both ball games we lost and the one we tied we had chances to score two or three times early but we didn't," said Broyles. "We have made too many mistakes. If we hadn't made so many we would have a better record."

The Razorbacks, now 1-2-1, have lost one game by one point, another by two and have been tied.

Broyles chose to take the wind and kickoff to start the second half, leading 7-3.

"That backfired when (Charles) Wilson ran the draw on third and nine into our end of the field," said Broyles. "That kept us backed up when we had the wind."

Wilson, a 200-pounder, popped free on a 32-yard touchdown run in the third period that gave Baylor its 10-7 lead.

"The big thing was they had the big backs who could run right over us," Broyles said. "We would hit them at the line of scrimmage but they would fall forward enough to move the chains."

Broyles said that after looking at the films he felt that Trantham and monster man Steve Hoehn played well and that defensive tackles Jerry Dossey and Alvin Jones were getting a bit more "fundamentally sound."

"We have a great group of youngsters up there, and they want to win," said Broyles.

Williams Has a Fat New Contract

BOSTON (AP)—Dick Williams, armed with a fat three-year contract as manager of the Boston Red Sox, shopped around for pitching and catching strength today to help his young charges defend the American League pennant in 1968.

Williams, a 38-year-old former journeyman player, frankly discussed his needs after being rewarded during the weekend with the long-term contract calling for a reported $50,000 a year.

"We'll be looking to strengthen our pitching and catching next year," Williams said. "This is what we'll trade for if the opportunity presents itself. I'm not up to date on the trade situation, but we've been laying the groundwork."

"The winter meetings in Mexico are coming up and we might be able to do some business then."

Tie Usually Not Very Satisfactory

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Every football player, of course, loves to be a winner at the game he is playing. Nobody likes to lose, but not a soul in his right mind ever would be satisfied with a tie.

As you know, the Arkansas Razorbacks tied their first game since 1955 last Saturday night, a 10-10 stalemate with the Baylor Bears. It was also the first tie under the Broyles regime at Fayetteville. Frank Broyles has been said to be a very conservative coach, but after the Baylor game that fact stands out about his coaching personality.

Most Hog callers have been convinced over the years that Broyles' techniques were of the finest quality, but some now will question that statement. Everyone has his own right to criticize, but it has been extremely hard to find a flaw in the Frank Broyles coaching system.

It is easy to believe, however, that he may be carrying it a little too far in the 1967 season. This year's Razorbacks are, by Broyles' admission, a scrambling ball club, much smaller than normal but quick enough to surprise an opponent. But it goes without saying that conservative football never brought the surprise element in a football game itself.

Not in downgrading Broyles as a coach, because this writer believes strongly that Arkansas is lucky to have him; still, the Porkers this season have an intense need for a more wide-open style of football. This might include opening up passing deep in one's own territory when the opponent is not expecting it, or actually taking a few more gambles in the sense of SMU.

Those SMU Mustangs have their own brand of football, taught by Hayden Fry, a coaching alumnus from the U of A. Their method of throwing every type of play during every type of situation is what won the SWC championship for the Ponies in '66. Nevertheless, only certain coaches subscribe to forcing the guessing man's game on the other team, and their number is not growing very rapidly.

The state of Arkansas will continue, as will this writer, to stand behind each decision the coaching staff makes during tight moments, and we have no reason whatsoever to fret, that is until Arkansas goes 0-10.

Southern Cal Romps Over Irish

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California's publicity campaign to move this year's Game of the Decade from the Midwest to the West Coast has opened with one eye-popping orange juice commercial.

Even Notre Dame, after a taste of O.J., is buying.

It came about last Saturday when Southern Cal's O.J. Simpson thrust himself onto the national scene by leading the Trojans to a decisive 24-7 victory over the Irish in college football's game of the day.

The loss dispelled any hopes twice beaten Notre Dame had of retaining its No. 1 ranking of 1966 assured by its Game of the Decade tie against Michigan State and a final 51-0 victory over USC.

On the other hand, the victory was sure to strengthen Southern Cal's present No. 1 ranking and further enhance its upcoming traditional battle against UCLA Nov. 18 should the Trojans, 5-0, and Bruins keep winning.

UCLA, No. 4, ran its record to 5-0 with a 37-14 whipping of California as Gary Beban passed for two scores and ran for another.

Second-ranked Purdue also had an easy time, swamping Ohio State 41-6 to remain unbeaten in four games and No. 5 Colorado, Alabama, No. 7, and North Carolina State, No. 9, also carried on.

But two other Top Ten clubs—Georgia and Nebraska—dropped from the undefeated as Mississippi stunned the third-ranked Bulldogs 29-20 and Kansas surprised the Cornhuskers, No. 8, 10-0.

Tenth-ranked Houston was idle.

Notre Dame, oddly a two-touchdown favorite, kept the top on Simpson the first half, but could only sit wide-eyed when the second half commercial started and O.J. began pouring through Irish fingers.

The nation's rushing leader, held to 41 yards in 14 carries before interception, scored three touchdowns and covered 125 yards in 25 carries in the final two periods.

USC Coach John McKay, glorying in the revenge of last year's humiliating loss to Notre Dame, said his club "had more speed, better running backs and just better football players in there—and that's why we won."

Purdue, which beat Notre Dame earlier, ran its record to 4-0 behind Mike Pappas, who hit nine straight passes for 142 yards and two TDs for a 35-0 halftime bulge.

Colorado, 4-0, controlled the ball most of the time against previously unbeaten Missouri, but needed three field goals by Dave Bartelt to help overcome a 23-6 deficit and continue to a 24-6 triumph.

Two field goals by Steve Davis and Kenny Stabler's second TD pass to Dennis Homan snapped a 14-14 tie for Alabama, which hasn't been beaten in 25 games, and the Tide breezed 35-21 over Vanderbilt.

North Carolina State unloaded in the second half for its fifth straight victory, beating Maryland 31-9 after trailing 3-0 at the half.

Fired-up Mississippi overcame a 14-12 halftime deficit as a fumble led to a 22-yard field goal by Jimmy Keyes and a 69-yard punt return and a pass interception led to two more scores in the second half.

Kansas completely tamed Nebraska as it handed the Cornhuskers their first shutout in six years under Bob Levaney. Bob Douglass passed and ran the Jayhawks to their touchdown while Nebraska threatened only once in the game.

Tennessee put its claim on the Top Ten with an impressive 24-13 victory over Georgia Tech and Michigan State smashed Michigan 34-0 in other big games.

Navy beat Syracuse 27-14 in the East's top game. Texas edged Oklahoma 5-7. Rice mauled Northwestern 55-6. Arkansas and Baylor tied 10-10.

Olympic Rehearsal in Mexico

By STRATFORD C. JONES
MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico's big rehearsal for the 1968 Olympic Games moved into the second round today with one world record in the bag after a generally disappointing, and confusing, opening day.

Seven finals were on the program for track and field events in the third International Sports Week, with attention centered on Randy Matson of Texas A&M, world shot put record holder, and Gaston Roelants of Belgium, the 3,000-meter steeplechase king.

Mohamad Nassiri of Iran had the pleasure on breaking the first world record in the Pre-Olympics by hefting 320 pounds in the sling and jerk weightlifting Sunday night on his way to the bantamweight gold medal.

His 7937-point total was only 11 pounds off that world record, too. The record Nassiri broke was his own, set last month.

Roelants finished a distant third in Sunday's most spectacular track event, the 10,000-meter run which Mohamed Gamoudi of Tunisia won in 30 minutes, 16 seconds.

Pat Winstow of San Jose, Calif., led the women's pentathlon with 2,957 points into the final two events—the 200-meter dash and the long jump. Annalicia Tothne Kovacs of Hungary was second with 2,901.

Matson will be trying to beat his world mark of 70-7 1/2 in the shotput, and he seemed to have the field to himself, with the exception of Wilnos Varju of Hungary, bronze medalist in the Tokyo Olympics.

Other finals on tap were women's 100 and 400 meters and discus and the men's high jump and 800 meters.

Opening day times were off the world marks, as had been expected in a city over 7,000 feet above sea level.

Alworth Gets 2 Scores in Charger Win

By RON RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The voices Speedy Duncan hears give him good information, but his dreams tend to get a little out of hand.

"I had a dream Saturday night that I would intercept four passes and help San Diego win," the Charger defensive back said after an important 45-31 victory over Kansas City Sunday.

In real life, Duncan intercepted just one of Len Dawson's throws, but it was a good one. Duncan took 100 yards for a touchdown, the longest return of a pass interception in league history.

"Chris Burford had beaten me on that play for the last two years," the 5-10, 175-pound defensive back said. "It's a short up-and-out pattern where he pushes me off, goes for the flag and beats me. This time, I played a yard or two deeper."

"I got the ball with my hand, batted it up and was ready to down it when I heard (defensive back) Bud Whitehead yell, 'Run, Speedy, run, you've got the sideline.' So I looked. Whitehead yelled again, and I ran."

Earlier in the afternoon's festivities, Duncan had picked up a fumble by Mike Carrell and taken it 35 yards for a touchdown.

Two other Charger touchdowns also came on long strikes. Quarterback John Hadl hit flanker Lance Alworth with a 60-yard scoring pass, and rookie halfback Dick Post burst through for a 67-yard touchdown run.

In other AFL games Sunday, New York and Houston fought to a 28-28 tie, Oakland beat Buffalo 24-20 and Boston crushed Miami 41-10. Denver was idle.

In the NFL, Minnesota upset Green Bay 10-7, Los Angeles

Assagai and Dr. Fagan in Spotlight

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dr. Fager and Assagai take the spotlight in thoroughbred horse racing this week.

Dr. Fager, beaten 10 1/2 lengths by Damascus in the Woodward Stakes, is scheduled to go in the $100,000 Hawthorne Gold Cup at the Chicago track Saturday. Assagai renews his campaign for grass course horse of the year honors in the $100,000 Man o' War Stakes at Aqueduct.

Johnny Nerud, trainer of Dr. Fager, hopes his 3-year-old colt will be "on his own" in the Hawthorne Gold Cup. He feels Dr. Fager's defeat by Damascus in the Woodward was mainly due to the speed horses sent out for the express purpose of dueling with Dr. Fager for the lead and let Damascus come from far back to win.

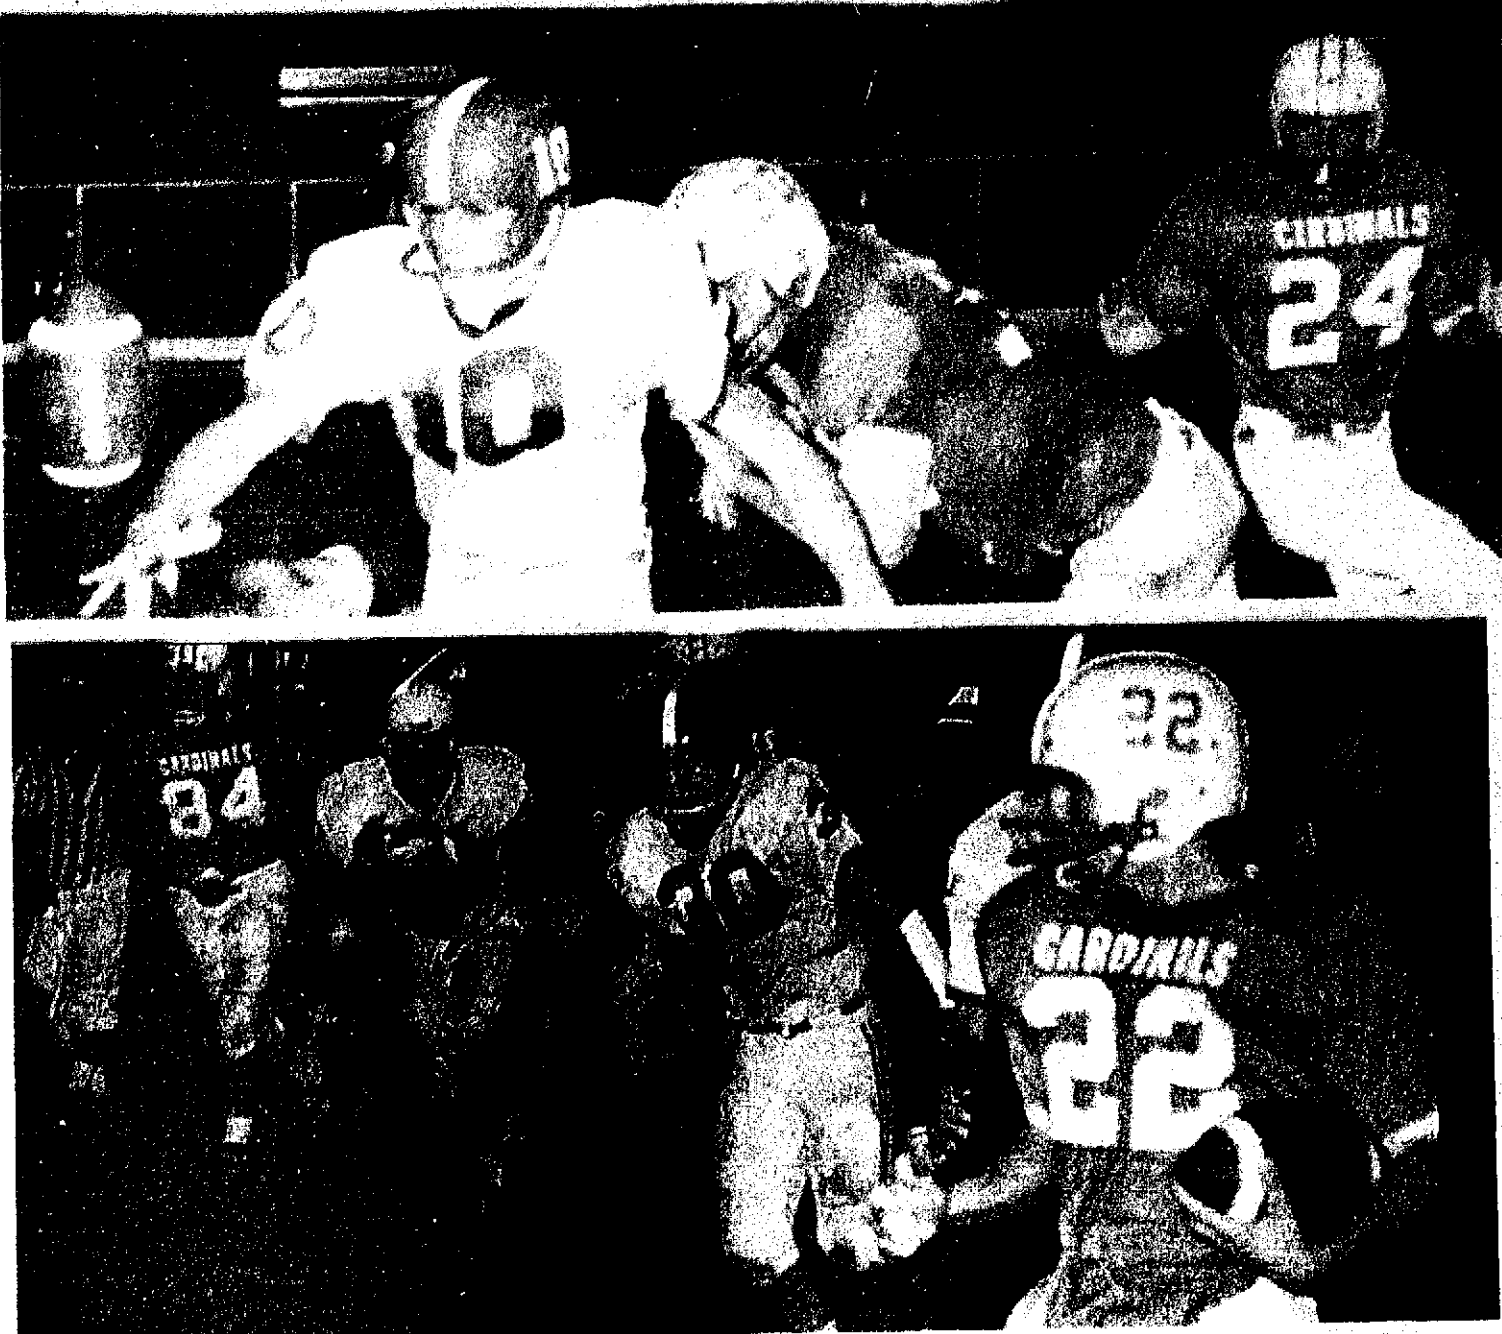

Damascus, already invited to the Washington, D.C. International at Laurel Nov. 11, was scheduled to make his first start on the grass against Assagai in the Woodward, but trainer Frank Whiteley, Jr. changed his plans. Damascus' next start will be in the Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct Oct. 28.

That leaves Assagai with an opportunity to reverse his neck defeat by Fitt-To in the United Nations Handicap at Atlantic City last month. Fitt-To is expected to go in the Man o' War along with Minden Point, winner of last week's Manhattan Handicap at Aqueduct on Columbus Day.

Barbecue Those Rib Pork Chops On Top of Range

Ever wonder how we got the word, "barbecue?" One source suggests it comes from a Spanish term, barbacoa. This means an elevated frame used for roasting types of outdoor cooking as for coffee beans.

Another source suggests it comes from a French phrase, "barbe a queue," literally, "beard to tail." At the original barbecue the animal was roasted whole. Now, barbecue means roasted meat served to a gathering.

It's possible, however, to achieve a similar flavor right on range by using spices and seasonings after meat is browned.

These ribs pork chops are cooked with mustard, a barbecue sauce.

Rib pork chops are those with a single large bone, cut on one side of the bone. When cut inch thick, they make an adequate serving for the average appetite.

Vikings Pull Big Upset on Green Bay

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
No wonder the winning habit hasn't come easy for the Minnesota Vikings. They only play Green Bay a couple of times each year.

The Vikings pulled the biggest upset of the young National Football League season Sunday, splitting Green Bay's world champs 10-7 on a 12-yard field goal by Fred Cox with eight seconds to play.

It was Minnesota's first victory of the season... and the first setback for the Packers since they bowed to the Vikings 20-17 last November.

"Beating Green Bay is getting to be a habit," quipped Cox, whose second field goal in the 1966 game at Green Bay provided Minnesota's margin of victory.

After losing that one, however, the Packers reeled off five straight victories, beat Dallas for the NFL title, whipped Kansas City in the Super Bowl and got off to a 3-0-1 start this year.

The Vikings, meanwhile, dropped five of their last six games in 1966 for a 4-9-1 finish and were 0-4 this season going into Sunday's game at rain-drenched Milwaukee, Wis.

While the Vikings were overtaking Green Bay with a 10-point spurt in the final period, the Los Angeles Rams came from 10 points down in the last six minutes to earn a 24-24 standoff at Baltimore and spoil the Colts' perfect NFL record.

At Atlanta, Wade Trynham's 31-yard field goal with two seconds remaining gave the winless Falcons a 20-20 deadlock with Washington.

At Pittsburgh, Fran Tarkenton's 69-yard TD bomb to Joe Morrison off a triple reverse shot the New York Giants past the Steelers 27-24 with 1:50 to go.

At Philadelphia, Ken Willard's fourth-quarter scoring burst carried the San Francisco 49ers to a 28-27 nod over the Eagles.

The Dallas Cowboys edged

New Orleans 14-10, the Cleveland Browns shaded St. Louis 20-16 and the Chicago Bears subdued Detroit 14-3 in other NFL games.

In the American Football League, San Diego outscored Kansas City 45-31, New York and Houston battled to a 28-28 tie, Oakland trimmed Buffalo 24-20 and Boston slugged Miami 41-10.

Green Bay's Zeke Bratkowski, unbeaten in eight previous games as a relief pitcher for Bart Starr, had two fourth-quarter passes picked off by the Vikings, who turned each theft into a score.

Bruce Gossett's 47-yard field goal and Roman Gabriel's third scoring pass—a 16-yarder to Bernie Casey with 2:57 to play—pulled Los Angeles even at Baltimore. The Colts had won their first four games and appeared to have No. 5 wrapped up on Johnny Unitas' 31-yard TD pitch to Willie Richardson early in the fourth quarter.

Unitas, who signed a three-year contract for a reported $375,000 before the game, also hit Alex Hawkins with a 14-yard TD pass. Lou Michaels kicked a 45-yard field goal for the Colts, but missed a 44-yard bid with 1 1/2 minutes remaining.

The Redskins, beaten by Dallas in the final minute a week ago, erased a 17-14 Atlanta lead on a 24-yard Sonny Jurgenson-Bobby Mitchell TD pass with 42 seconds to go. But Tommy Nobis, Atlanta's brilliant linebacker, blocked the extra point kick by Brig Owens and Trynham's tying three-pointer capped a last-ditch drive by the Falcons.

Trailing 24-20 at the two-minute warning, the Giants caught the Steelers napping when Tarkenton handed off to Ernie Koy, who slipped the ball to Homer Jones on an apparent end-around play. Jones, however, flipped it back to the quarterback, who found Morrison all alone on the Pittsburgh 30.

Willard's winning four-yard plunge avenged San Francisco's one-point loss to the Eagles last year. Two touchdowns by fullback Gary Lewis helped stake the 49ers to a 21-10 halftime lead, but the Eagles rallied to take the lead behind Norm Snead, who fired three TD passes.

The Cowboys held off winless New Orleans in the rain at Dallas, stopping a fourth-quarter

Saints' march on the five-yard line and thwarting another drive when Dave Edwards recovered a fumble on the seven with one minute to play.

Lou Groza's first two field goals of the season lifted the Browns past the fumbling Cardinals. Jim Bakken's third field goal cut the Browns' lead to 17-16 early in the final period before Groza kicked a 34-yarder with 58 seconds remaining.

Gale Sayers romped over a muddy field for 142 yards and one touchdown and Bennie McRae scored on a 29-yard interception runback as the Bears cuffed the Lions at Chicago. The winners threw only four passes in the game, but completed three—including a 31-yard Jack Concannon-Johnny Morris flip that set up Sayers' three-yard TD run.

Esposito May Be One That Is Missed

By LARRY ELDRIDGE
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Those who wondered how lanky Phil Esposito would get along without Bobby Hull skating on his left wing didn't have to wait long for an answer.

Now there might be some doubt if Hull and the Chicago Black Hawks will be able to get by without Esposito.

Esposito, a gifted 6-foot-1 center obtained by Boston in an off-season trade with the Black Hawks, exploded for four goals Sunday night as the Bruins ranked Montreal 6-2 to remain unbeaten in two National Hockey League starts.

It was the biggest scoring spurge — and first hat trick — for Esposito in his NHL career.

The Toronto Maple Leafs, meanwhile, handed Chicago's defending NHL champions their third setback in three games—pounding the Black Hawks 5-3 despite Hull's third goal of the young season.

Elsewhere, Detroit edged New York 3-2 and Los Angeles trimmed Minnesota 5-3.

Esposito hardly missed ex-linemate Hull as he banged in three goals in the opening period and added another in the middle session, staking the Bruins to a commanding lead.

Dave Keon and Brian Conacher shot the Maple Leafs to a 2-0 lead at Chicago before Ken Wharram countered for the Hawks in the first period. Jim Pappin and rookie Wayne Carleton then boosted the Stanley Cup champs' lead to 4-2.

Wayne Maki's first NHL tally and Hull's goal late in the final period closed the gap, but Frank Mahovlich hit an open net to insure the Leafs' second triumph without a loss.

Detroit spotted the Rangers a 2-0 edge, then swept from behind on goals by Norm Ullman, Dean Prentice and Gordie Howe for its first victory in three starts. Don Marshall and Jim Neilson were the New York scorers.

Los Angeles' young Kings won their second straight with a three-goal burst in the third period. Ted Irvine led the LA attack with a pair of goals and Gordon Labossiere, Howie Hughes and Lowell MacDonald had one apiece. Dave Balon, Bob Charlebois and Murray Hall connected for the North Stars.

Denver Opens Cage Season With a Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Denver Rockets opened their American Basketball Association season Sunday night with a 110-105 victory over Anaheim while in the National Basketball Association the St. Louis Hawks posted their second victory of the young season, defeating the San Francisco Warriors 107-102.

Denver's debut was sparked by the 39-point output of Lefty Thomas, who hit 19 field goals and a free throw. Les Selvig and seven-footer Larry Bunce led the Anigogs with 26 and 22 points, respectively.

It was Anaheim's second loss. A slumped-down Paul Silas led the Hawks' attack with 15 points with four of his teammates also hitting in the double figures.

The Warriors are generally the Hawks' chief rivals for the Western Division championship, but they are now without the services of Rick Barry, who chose to sit out this season so he can jump to the Oakland Oaks of the ABA next season.

San Francisco held a 51-49 lead at the half but the Hawks took a three-point lead with 2:43 remaining and never relinquished it.

Unitas Has Signed Big Contract

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — A few years ago, quarterback John Unitas of the Baltimore Colts predicted that within five years someone in the National Football League would be drawing an annual salary of $100,000.

"But," he added, in the same matter-of-fact tone he uses when discussing one of his many NFL records, "it won't be me."

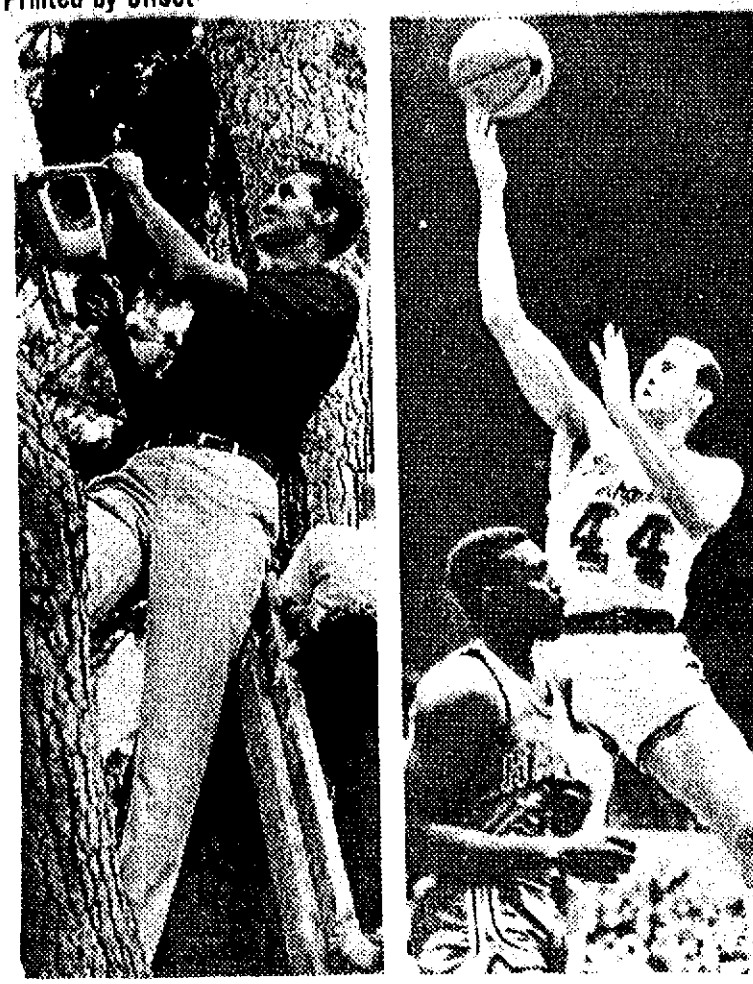

Typically—for Unitas—there was no flag waving when he did reach the magic figure. The Colts, in fact, practically kissed off the signing with the same notice given to the release of a rookie.

Just before the opening kickoff for Sunday's Baltimore-Los Angeles game, a terse announcement was made in the Memorial Stadium press box: "Attention press, John Unitas has signed a three-year contract."

As usual, terms were not disclosed. But the best guess was Unitas signed for about $375,000, which more than likely would be spread over more than the three playing years. Still, he would be one of the highest-paid athletes and probably tops in football on straight salary, disregarding bonuses.

Now 34 and in his 12th NFL season, Unitas reached agreement with club owner Carroll Rosenbloom on the monetary value of the new contract during the training season. The additional time was used to work out ways of easing the tax bite.

Unitas has acknowledged that he makes more money during the off-season than for playing football—income that will be sharply curtailed when he retires from the gridiron. That's why he sought the long-term payments as he concluded his previous three-year pact.

THE START OF A NEW season doesn't exactly find Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers up a tree. But before jumping off on another scoring spree, right, the all-pro guard of the Lakers did climb up to do some tree-pruning with his electric-start chain saw.

Had Unitas been injured and knocked out of action before he actually signed, he would have been paid on the basis of the new agreement rather than the estimated $70,000 he earned annually under the old contract.

Perhaps because of the verbal agreement prior to the season, the Colts did not accompany the signing with fanfare. They failed to capitalize on the publicity value, as did the Philadel-

Rice Only One Undefeated in SWC Race

By JACK DONOVAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Look who has the only winning season record in the Southwest Conference Rice, that's who!

If one surprise is not enough, look who is still leading the conference race—Southern Methodist, the only team expected to finish lower than Rice this year.

Some of this will be changed after one non-conference and three conference football games are played Saturday.

The Owls, who have completed the non-conference portion of their season with two victories and a one-touchdown defeat, commence their conference action at home against the defending champion Mustangs.

Southern Methodist has not won since the Sept. 16 season-opening game with Texas A&M. That victory, however, has kept them in first place in the conference standings.

Rice, whose last winning season was in 1963 and who in the next three years won only eight of 30 games, crushed Northwestern 50-3 last Saturday night. The week before Northwestern carried a 16-6 lead into the fourth quarter against unbeaten Purdue before losing 25-16.

For a team that supposedly was stripped of its guiding hand and offense when quarterback Robby Shelton suffered a shoulder separation in the first game of the season, Rice has mysteriously emerged as a threat.

Robert Hatley, a quiet 22-year-old senior who was expected to be only a reliever in his final season, assumed Shelton's job and passed for five touchdowns and ran for one in victories over

Navy and Northwestern. Halley, who does not compare with Shelton as a runner, has respectable credentials as a passer. His 72 completions in 149 attempts, both Rice records, for 859 yards was fifth best in the conference last year. He also shares a school record of less distinction, 12 interceptions, also acquired in 1966.

Most conference teams shed their season-long doleful demeanor or last week. While Rice trounced Northwestern, Texas A&M, in an incredible finish, upset Texas Tech 28-24; Texas, embarrassed by a first half that never saw it cross midfield, defeated Oklahoma 9-7; and Baylor, which outplayed Arkansas, saw the Razorbacks escape with a 10-10 tie on a field goal with 37 seconds to play. Southern Methodist, sorely lacking a quarterback, lost to Army 24-6. Arkansas' tie and Tech's defeat, its second in a row after the memorable upset of Texas two weeks ago, dropped them from a tie for first place with SMU.

Another big conference game Saturday is Texas at Arkansas in a nationally televised contest. It is the first time since 1958 that the conference lead has not been at stake in this game.

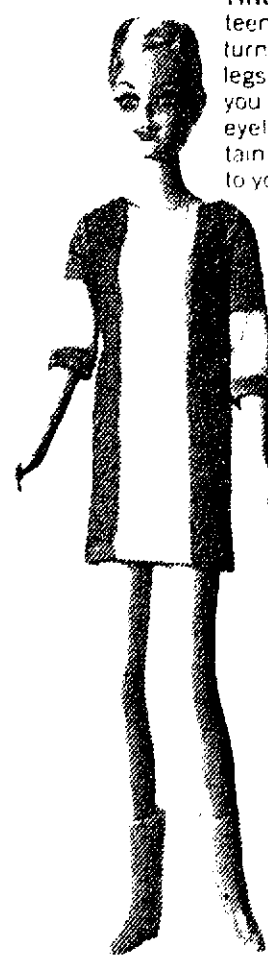

The revitalized Aggies, who had lost four in a row, meet winless Texas Christian Saturday night at Fort Worth and in a day game Tech goes to Florida State who the week before edged Texas A&M, 3.

At this mid-point of the campaign the pre-season forecasts of the conference race are as out-moded as calf-length women's dresses.

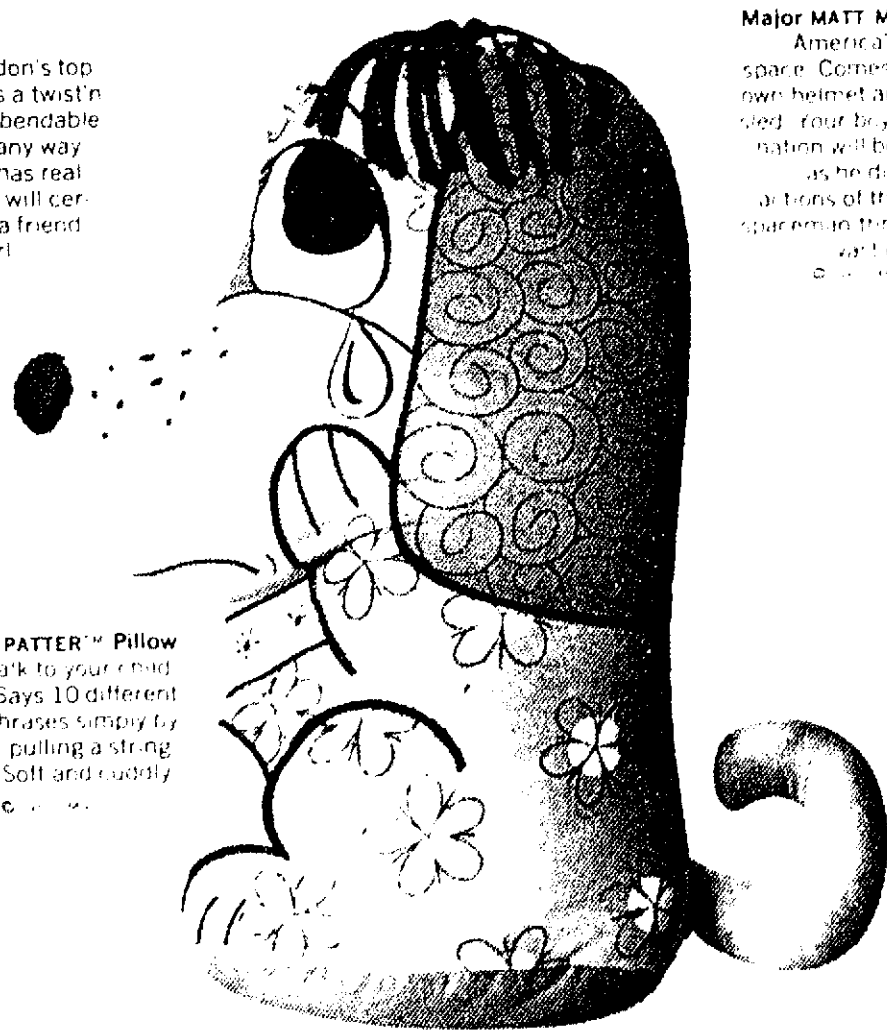

Coach J. T. King, whose Tech team suddenly reversed the ragsto-riches apothegm, said after Saturday's defeat "when this race is over it's liable to be anybody in the Cotton Bowl."

Press Answerable to Subscribers — Not Government

Why our founding fathers wrote freedom of speech and press into the Constitution is illustrated by the latest threat "to pass a law," coming from all people—a professor of law.

If a professor who is supposed to be teaching law doesn't know any more about the practical course of men and machines and Government than this one does then you can understand why our founders put freedom of speech and press in the Constitution where it would be safe from tinkering hands.

The professor in question is James A. Barron of George Washington Law School, and in the Harvard Law Review he advocates a law guaranteeing access to a newspaper's letters-to-the-editor and its advertising columns.

Professor Barron argues that while the public can establish a new paper if it doesn't like the old one, or print its dissent in pamphlets, there is still need for regulation of the press.

Obviously it was persons with Professor Barron's passion for control and censorship that our founders had in mind when they took speech and press freedom out of the hands of lawmakers and lodged it in the Constitution.

The press, like every institution run by human beings, has its faults, but Professor Barron is confused about how those faults are to be corrected. Newspapers are responsible to their subscribers—not to the Government.

Although he is a professor of law it is obvious Mr. Barron's thinking is influenced by the "equal time" rule governing radio and television. But radio and television are licensed by Government, because the limited number of frequencies and channels precludes protestors setting up a station of their own. But the press is unlicensed and free because anyone who fancies himself wronged by a newspaper has the option of resorting to circulars or even starting an opposition paper.

Oddly enough Professor Barron makes his pitch from the viewpoint of the licensed broadcasters, yet the very press which he would strangle with censorship is the one America would look to to prevent Government from actually seizing the licensed broadcast stations in a moment of crisis.

Rail Worker Deal May Be Just in Time

By CARL P. LECHSNDORF

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The compulsory rail settlement going into effect today for 137,000 shop craft workers may have come just in time to block the growing pattern of tossing tough labor disputes into Congress.

Congressional sources believe it may thus give collective bargaining a much needed boost in the rail industry, where it appeared in great danger of failing entirely.

The reason is simply that neither side is happy with the way this dispute was settled: The unions don't like the compulsory settlement procedure that was used—although they like the contract they got—and management is unhappy with the settlement terms.

Court Will Hear Private School Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to decide if taxpayers can bring lawsuits challenging federal education programs that aid parochial schools.

This means the court will re-examine a 1923 decision that has barred individual taxpayers from going to court to try to block large-scale government spending programs.

Thus the court directly stepped into the controversial church-state area for the first time since its 1964 ruling barring required Bible reading in the public schools.

The target of the current lawsuit is assistance to parochial schools under the 1965 federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

A three-judge federal court in New York City dismissed the suit, brought by seven civic and education leaders, last June by a 2-1 vote.

This prevented determination of the taxpayers' claim that spending of federal funds for parochial schools violates the principle of church-state separation contained in the 1st Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

U.S. Circuit Court Judge Paul R. Hays, joined by U.S. District Judge John F. X. McGohey, said the seven taxpayers had no standing to sue because they could not show they directly suffered damages.

U.S. District Court Judge Melvin E. Frankel dissented, saying taxpayers have the right to attack a law "respecting an establishment of religion."

The test case was supported by the American Jewish Congress, the New York Civil Liberties Union, the United Federation of Teachers and the United Parents Associations.

The federal program provides funds to finance guidance services, purchase of textbooks and some instruction in religiously operated schools.

Sentences in Circuit Court

Judge William H. Arnold headed down the following sentences in Hempstead Circuit Court Friday:

Lola B. Love, Negro, pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter, five year suspended sentence. The charge followed the death of her husband last July in an altercation at their home near Emmet.

Charlie Lee Howard, pleaded guilty to burglary and grand larceny, three year suspended sentence.

Leon Ogden, pleaded guilty to burglary, two year suspended sentence.

Robert Thomas, pleaded guilty to burglary and grand larceny, sentenced to five years. He was under a five year suspended sentence and this was revoked by the Court, making his total sentence 10 years.

Mrs. Martha Delaney, pleaded guilty to forgery and uttering and embezzlement, Judge Arnold took the case under advisement.

The court recessed until October 30 when civil cases are scheduled.

Court Declines to Take Up Arkansas Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court declined today to examine an Arkansas law which provides punishment for adults who contribute to the delinquency of minors.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Legal Defense and Education Fund said the law, and similar ones in other states, is unconstitutional vague.

Fund attorneys claimed such laws sometimes regulate the association of adults and children in violation of the first Amendment guarantee of freedom of association.

The court made no comment in refusing to hear the case except to note that Justice William O. Douglas favored review.

The case brought to the court involved a party given Jan. 30, 1965, by John Henry and Sylvia Dokes in their apartment in the all-Negro Booker Home Project in Little Rock. Five youngsters under the age of 18 were among 22 whites and Negroes who attended.

Members of the city vice squad, alerted by a night watchman, arrested the couple and their guests. The adults were charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors. The minors were charged with illegally possessing alcoholic beverages.

Dokes and his wife were tried in Little Rock municipal court, found guilty and fined $25 each. The convictions were affirmed Dec. 11, 1966, by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

The appeal conceded that guests brought beer and rum to the apartment. But it argued that the law is not clear on what specifically is delinquent conduct—clear enough for an "ordinary" adult to know the boundary between the legal and the illegal.

Fund attorneys also reiterated a claim made by the Dokes couple in Arkansas courts: that they were arrested "solely because they permitted a peaceable interracial gathering in their home."

Arkansas Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell disputed both points in opposing Supreme Court review.

He said though the law is broad "it is reasonable to believe that any adult would be able to know what type of action would cause him to be in violation" of it, and he said, the "interracial aspect of the party had nothing to do with the subsequent investigation and arrests."

Ford, Union Continue Secret Talks

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers union continue their contract talks in secrecy again today.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther and Malcolm L. Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, were expected to head the bargaining teams in the third straight day of face-to-face talks.

They met for 10 hours Sunday, but neither side reported the results of that session.

A news blackout the two sides imposed at 9 p.m. Tuesday remained in effect.

The strike by 160,000 Ford workers is almost six weeks old with a total wage loss the company estimates at more than $140 million. The damage to Ford's business won't be fully known for months to come, but its new car sales in the first 10 days of this month were 60,000 below those of the same period a year ago.

Workers struck at 11:59 p.m. Sept. 6 when the old three-year contract expired.

Prior to the 9 p.m. Sunday recess, there had been speculation that settlement was so close that the bargainers would continue talks on an around-the-clock basis to wrap up the contract.

Congressman to Visit Hope on Oct. 20

Congressman John Paul Hammerschmidt will visit the Hope Area Friday, Oct. 20. He is bringing a flag that has flown over the Nation's Capitol for the new Beryl Henry School.

The Congressman will then go to the Red River Vocational Technical School where he will address the students and faculty and tour the school.

Congressman Hammerschmidt is a Rotarian and will meet with the Rotary Club for lunch. He will not be on the program but will answer questions from members.

He will then meet with a delegation of local people to discuss Millwood Dam and lake area and later visit some local industry. He will remain in the Hope area until about 4:00 p.m.

Hope Port Center for Plane Search

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A low ceiling and rain hampered the air search this morning for businessman - farmer Marvin Melton of Jonesboro, who has been missing since Friday on a flight from Jonesboro to Dallas.

Six planes were aloft this morning, however, searching in the Hope and Texarkana area for Melton's single-engine, black-and-white DeSocraft Debonair, according to Col. Bob James of the Arkansas wing of the Civil Air Patrol.

James said that in Arkansas the search centered on Arkadelphia southwest to Texarkana. He said searchers were handicapped by not knowing Melton's definite flight path.

"We know only that he was in the vicinity of Little Rock when he asked for the Texarkana weather," James said.

He said the heavily timbered terrain in the search area also made sightings from the air difficult.

James said the Texas wing of the Civil Air Patrol was combing Melton's anticipated flight path in Texas.

He said more planes were expected to join the search today as the weather improves.

Maj. John Rhinehart of the Civil Air Patrol said 39 aircraft logged more than 207 hours of flying time Sunday in looking for Melton, 65, a former state senator who entered the 1962 Democratic gubernatorial primary, but withdrew before the campaign began.

Rhinehart said the Arkansas CAP had never flown as many hours in one day searching for an airplane. He said the 149 sorties covered 9,000 square miles.

Melton was believed to have been alone on the flight. His last contact was at 10:40 a.m. Friday with the control tower at Grider Field at Pine Bluff. He asked for information on weather conditions at Texarkana.

U.S. Pressure May Bring Reforms by Vietnam Officials

By JOHN T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American officials believe that for the first time they have successfully pressured South Vietnam's present leaders into some major reforms.

But U.S. sources say the reforms have only scratched the surface. Much depends, they say, on how the new regime of President-elect Nguyen Van Thieu and Vice President-elect Nguyen Cao Ky behaves.

Recent evidence of effective U.S. pressure, one source said, was the removal of six province chiefs and from 40 to 50 district chiefs on charges of corruption and incompetence. Yet there were signs that at least some of the firings were triggered by personal rivalries rather than a desire for good government.

In a parallel development, reliable sources said U.S. and Vietnamese officials have worked out a major overhaul of the much-criticized pacification program to win over the countryside from the Communists.

The plan gives Maj. Gen. Nguyen Duc Thang, a Vietnamese general regarded by U.S. officials as hard-working, shrewd and incorruptible, greater powers to carry out the program. U.S. sources believe he

Fires Drive Many From Calif. Homes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A searing brush fire swept into another Los Angeles residential area today, boosting to 26 the number of homes left gutted in its path and threatening about 100 more on nearby hillsides.

The fire near suburban Chatsworth about 30 miles northwest of Los Angeles was one of two major blazes which have blackened an estimated 26,000 acres and left one person dead since Sunday.

Tired firemen, who battled through the night, said the major danger was that hot, dry winds might return.

At the most destructive point of the 10,000-acre Chatsworth fire four homes were reported destroyed today.

Some 100 other stood in the path of the flames.

There were 22 homes destroyed Sunday in the area.

To the southwest—about 10 charred miles away—a second fire front burned toward new homes about three miles east of Thousand Oaks. However, firemen said no homes there were immediately threatened.

About 1,000 firemen fought the fingers of fire which nibbled over hills and into canyons and gullies.

Accidental Bombing Kills Three

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — An accidental U.S. bombing inflicted more casualties than the Communist enemy at the battered Marine outpost of Con Thien Sunday, U.S. spokesmen reported today. It was the second mistaken bombing of Americans at Con Thien in three days.

U.S. spokesmen said a bomb that fell from a Marine plane killed three Marines and wounded nine, while North Vietnamese shells injured eight Marines. Last Friday, two bombs dropped from a Marine aircraft killed two and wounded 21 Marines.

Both incidents at the muddy base guarding Red infiltration routes just south of the demilitarized zone were being investigated. The Marine defenders received repeated savage shellings last month from North Vietnamese believed attempting to take Con Thien but overwhelming American fire beat back the assaults.

U.S. B52 bombers, which play a major role in the battle around Con Thien, swept into North Vietnam 50 miles above the demilitarized zone, their deepest raid in 10 months and blasted the Mu Gia Pass. This is the main entry to the Ho Chi Minh trail, which carries Communist troops and supplies through Laos and Cambodia to South Vietnam.

The eight-engine, $8-million bombers are usually kept away from possible danger from North Vietnamese missiles, which can reach them even at the 30,000-foot altitudes where they fly.

The bombers struck truck parks, supply concentrations and fuel storage sites at the pass after coming from Thailand over Laos so they would be in North Vietnam only briefly.

Life Sentence Affirmed by High Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court affirmed today the life sentence of Larry James Wright, 21, of Fort Smith, who was convicted last May of raping a Fort Smith woman Jan. 24.

Wright contended that the trial court erred by failing to grant a mistrial because the prosecutor attempted to impeach Wright's credibility on cross-examination.

The high court noted, however, that the court told the jury that the remarks about Wright's credibility had nothing to do with the rape charge.

Judgment to Walker Overturned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court threw out today a $75,000 judgment won by former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker in Louisiana courts against the Associated Press and The Times-Picayune Publishing Corp.

The court in a brief unsigned ruling cited its decision of last June that public figures — like public officials — cannot recover libel damages without a showing of actual malice.

Walker's suit was based on AP accounts of his activities at the University of Mississippi campus at Oxford in 1962 during disorders accompanying the admission of a Negro, James Meredith, into the university.

Last June the court threw out a $500,000 judgment Walker had won against AP in a Texas state court. This suit was based similarly on reports of the Oxford incident.

Fulbright Thinks Rusk to Carthyism

SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and a frequent critic of Johnson administration's Vietnam policies, traded words with Rusk only a few days after Rusk turned down an invitation to testify in an open hearing before the committee.

The junior senator detailed his reasons for opposing the war, saying the cost in terms of lives and lives, his solution to the war, he said, would be to end the problem over to the United Nations Security Council.

Fulbright also said Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen, R-Ill., and a low opinion of U.S. armed forces. "If he thinks that the fall of Southeast Asia would threaten the United States,"

That was Dirksen's contention during a recent Senate debate with Fulbright.

Fulbright said he didn't even think it likely that defeat in South Vietnam would lead to the loss of the rest of Southeast Asia.

The United States shouldn't follow in the footsteps of the United Empire by sticking its nose into the Vietnam conflict," he said. American involvement in an "indigenous Asian civil war" is unjust, he added.

Fulbright said he agreed with U.S. Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., who has refused to consider increasing taxes until there has been a significant cut in federal spending.

Fulbright said three federal projects that should be halted or drastically reduced were those for the proposed antiballistic missile system, the proposed supersonic transport and the proposed Apollo moon shot.

Thinks Brother Would Like to Be President

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Does Robert Kennedy want to be president?

Ask his brother Edward. You'll probably get a tongue-in-cheek reply.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., told a crowd of nearly 2,000 in Topeka Saturday night that Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., is telling everybody he doesn't want to be president.

"If you ever want to hear a short conversation," the Massachusetts senator said, "it's my brother, Bobby, telling someone he doesn't want to be president."

Kennedy's remark came after a telegram was read at a party fund-raising dinner in honor of Gov. Robert Docking. The New York senator sent birthday greetings to Docking, who was 42 last Monday.

The telegram from Robert Kennedy said: "I'm sorry I cannot be with you tonight but I've sent my brother to read my speech for me. When he's through with it, please send him right home."

"Unlike my brother Bobby," Edward Kennedy chuckled, "I do know where my home is."

The younger Kennedy also said there is nothing to reports about a presidential ticket of Robert Kennedy and Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., for 1968.

"My brother hasn't selected his vice president for 1968 yet," he continued in a kidding vein.

President Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey sent greetings to Docking.

Docking said he was touched by the events of the evening. He added, "And I know all of you have also been touched."

Pay Increase for 137,000 Rail Workers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wage hikes dictated under a mandate from Congress go into effect today for 137,000 railroad workers. The boosts range up to 28 cents per hour.

The pay raises ordered by a White House board in the first case of its sort, go to members of six rail shopcraft unions working for virtually all the nation's railroads.

Chief industry spokesman John P. Hiltz Jr. said the railroads decided against going into federal court to try to upset the wage increases, which Hiltz previously called "clearly inflationary."

"Our people have had to wait a long, long time for a pay increase," said chief union spokesman Thomas Ramsey. "I know they will be happy to get the money."

Congress created the presidential board in a special law to halt a two-day nationwide rail strike last July and gave the board power to impose the wage terms if there was no voluntary agreement. The law also forbade any further strike until Jan. 1, 1968.

While the railroads dropped any consideration for a court appeal, they refused to write the compulsory wage terms into a voluntary contract agreement.

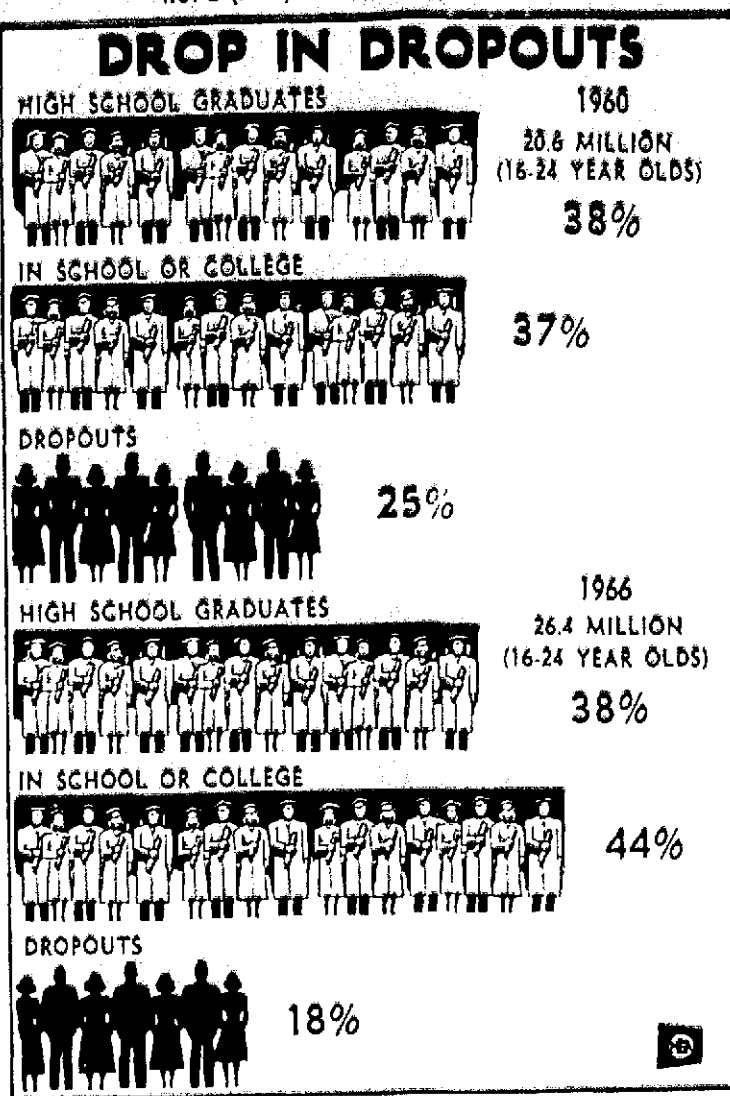

"The railroads will fully comply with the provisions of the law and the award," Hiltz said in Chicago.

The five-man White House board, headed by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., ordered a 6 per cent wage hike retroactive to Jan. 1 and a second raise of 5 per cent effective next July 1, plus a total of 20 cents per hour for 100,000 skilled workers.

The first 10 cents of the skill increases go into effect immediately, with 5 cents retroactive to April 1 and 5 cents retroactive to Oct. 1. An additional 5 cents will go into effect next April 1, and the final 5 cents next Oct. 1.

The workers had previously averaged $2.90 per hour, and skilled workers $3.05. The top paid men will get 28.3 cents per hour more immediately under the formula, bringing their pay to $3.33. They will be earning a fraction under $3.60 when the rest of the pay raises go into effect next year.

Other workers will get varying lesser hourly increases depending on present pay.

School dropouts are becoming less of a national problem, judging from Department of Labor statistics. An increasing need for better-educated workers to keep pace with the effect of rapid technological change on industry is credited with shrinking the proportion of dropouts in the nation's young adult population. In October of 1960, there were 5.2 million dropouts in the 16-24 age group totaling 20.6 million. Six years later, there were 4.8 million dropouts in the now much-larger group, 26.4 million.

Gerrymander Law Provision by Celler

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional redistricting impasse in Indiana is forcing Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., to abandon his effort to write an antigerrymandering provision into law.

The provision has deadlocked a House-Senate conference on a proposed redistricting law. Celler has said he would rather see no law than give up a fight he has been waging for 30 years.

But the pressure from Indiana representatives threatened with having to run statewide for Congress in 1968 instead of from districts has apparently ended the fight.

The House and Senate conferees are scheduled to meet Wednesday and are expected to approve a bill that would prohibit statewide elections for Congress but would leave control over gerrymandering to the states.

The bill will also provide that, starting in 1972, the maximum permissible variation between the largest and smallest congressional districts in a state would be 10 per cent.

Celler has been holding out in conference for a provision in the bill passed by the Senate requiring that all districts be "as compact as possible." But of the five Senate conferees, only one, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., favors it.

The other four senators are insisting on language leaving it to the states to determine whether the districts are "as compact as practicable."

Gerrymandering means to draw districts with roundabout boundaries so as to benefit a party.

At the last conference more than a month ago, Celler said he would never yield to the Senate conferees. "To turn this matter over to the states," he said, "would mean merely to continue the practice of gerrymandering. I have been striving for 30 years to stop this practice and I will not back down now."

Celler is now yielding, not to the Senate conferees, but to Indiana's 11 congressmen—five Democrats and six Republicans. They say they need a law passed quickly banning at-large elections, which is an uncontroversial provision in the deadlocked bill.

A federal court has ruled Indiana's present districts are unconstitutional. The divided Indiana legislature, with a Democratic Senate and a Republican House, has been unable to agree on new districts and is not

Governors See No Policy Endorsement

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Some Democratic and Republican governors said today that President Johnson will not get an endorsement for his Vietnam war policies during the cruise to the Virgin Islands that most of the nation's governors are undertaking.

Govs. John Connally of Texas and Otto Kerner of Illinois said in separate interviews they will not press for any endorsement of Johnson's Vietnam policies.

Both of the Democratic governors noted that 20 of their colleagues had endorsed the general policies of Johnson in Vietnam at a luncheon Sunday in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

The Democrats had reaffirmed their support of the President's course in Vietnam. Most of them had criticized it at a meeting in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., last December, but they retracted the criticism in a St. Louis, Mo., meeting subsequently.

Twenty-three of the 25 Republican governors and 22 of the 25 Democratic governors were expected aboard the liner Independence today for the annual Governors' Conference.

Gov. John Love of Colorado, head of the Republican Governors' Association, said he doesn't think the cruise conference will produce any unanimity on Vietnam.

"After all," Love said, "we Republicans are just about as divided as the Democrats on this issue and they have a candidate and we don't."

The declaration of Michigan Gov. George Romney, a Republican, that Johnson was following a "ping-pong" policy in Vietnam seemed to leave the governors as cold as the unsupported statement of Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan of California that the United States may be "doing much better in the war than we're being told."

Reagan said Johnson was waiting until a politically opportune time in the 1968 campaign to announce that "we've turned a point in the war and perhaps we're winning."

He spoke on ABC's program "Issues and Answers."

Gov. James Rhodes of Ohio, a Republican who had taken the initiative two years ago in lining up the governors behind Johnson's Vietnam policies, said he is not interested in taking any similar action now.

Asked why, he said he thinks there is too much Republican dissent.

"I'm not running for anything and I'm not supporting anybody who is," Rhodes said.

Claims Great New Invention

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — An engineer for the Sandia Corp. in Albuquerque is the inventor of a device which he describes as the first mechanical element of a basic nature, such as the lever or the wheel, to be developed in the 20th century.

Donald F. Wilkes says he has discovered more than 50 functions for the mechanism, which he calls rolamite. It can be used, he says, for relays, bearings, speed changers, pumps, pistons, dampers, shock absorbers, toys and jewelry.

A Sandia spokesman said Sunday that the rolamite is in an early stage of development but seems to offer solutions to a number of previously unresolved engineering problems.

Advantages of the device include an almost complete absence of friction and lack of need for lubrication.

Conviction of Negro Is Reversed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court reversed today the conviction of Johnny Coleman, a Negro under death sentence in Alabama in the slaying of a white mechanic.

The court said in an unsigned opinion that although evidence is in dispute as to whether Negroes were included in grand petit jury panels in Greene County, Ala., it appears that no Negro served on the grand jury which indicted Coleman or on the jury which convicted him.

Besides, the court said, "it further appeared that up to the time of petitioner's (Coleman's) trial, no Negro had ever served on a grand jury panel and few, if any Negroes had served on petit jury panels."

Citing a ruling in an earlier case, the court said this "in itself made out a prima facie case of the denial of the equal protection which the Constitution guarantees."

The court went on to say that Alabama did not present evidence adequate to rebut Coleman's claim of systematic racial discrimination in jury selection and therefore he was entitled to have his conviction reversed.

The mechanic, John D. Johnson, was shot and killed Aug. 30, 1961, outside his home at Eutaw, Coleman had escaped from jail in Eutaw several days earlier.

Coleman was convicted April 4, 1962.

Watchdog Victim of Burglars

NEW YORK (AP) — Burglars armed with bows and arrows killed one watchdog and wounded another Sunday before making off with $5,500 worth of auto equipment and accessories from a Jamaica, Queens, garage and service station.

Police said the thieves broke through a ceiling air vent of the building and, from some 10 feet above the floor, sent one arrow into the back of Duke, a two-year-old German shepherd, and another into the chest of a second dog, King, Duke died, but a veterinarian said King would recover.

Max Mitzman, owner of the building, said he bought the dogs because he had been held up six times and burglars had entered the building nine times in the past five years.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The first of the season's important dramatic shows will arrive Tuesday night, a drama of the kind television talks about a lot but rarely presents.

The play, an original by Loring Mandel called "Do Not Go Gentle into that Good Night," stars Melvyn Douglas and Shirley Booth. When CBS broadcasts the 79 minutes of drama, there will be no commercial interruptions—and that's really special.

Currently just about everything short of the Saturday morning kiddie cartoons are being labeled "specials," and the language used to describe some more special than others is beginning to sound like grades of olives.

George Schaefer, who for the past decade has concentrated on directing and—late in the production—NBC's "Hall of Fame" dramas, directed the program, his first outside assignment for a long time.

The current emphasis on special programs, particularly drama, he believes is forcing welcome changes in programming concepts.

"Hall of Fame," for instance, will break its familiar mold by kicking off its season with an adaptation of "A Bell for Adano," and later in the season will present Shaw's "St. Joan."

For years the NBC series has specialized in presenting performers of major stature like the Lunts and Julie Harris, in historical biographies—colorful, beautiful and perfectly safe.

"For at least three years I've been screaming to get away from that," Schaefer said. "But what really changed it was the success of the movies—and movie nights on television are really a succession of special programs—plus the success of 'Death of a Salesman.' Now there is once again real interest in original drama—so the wheel has made a complete circle again."

The return to favor of meaty drama in specials may, he hopes, bring back some of the talents who have moved into motion pictures. "There just was not enough to television to keep them busy—men like Franklin Schaefer, Fielder Cook and Delbert Mann," Schaefer said. "Unless they wanted to turn out religious programs for Sunday mornings, there was not drama beyond the series. So they left and they've all done very well."

"I was lucky beyond my best dreams—Douglas found he could make the time and Miss Booth was willing to break into a vacation to handle the emergency," Schaefer said. "And they are great."

Joey Bishop, whose late evening ABC show had been catching on nicely until forced into reruns by the recent strike on the network, has had a contract renewal that will carry the show to January 1969. The program, incidentally, resumes with new shows tonight.

Donnybrook Confronts Congress

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Another fiscal donnybrook confronts Congress this week, with the House the arena for action. Involved, as they have been for weeks, are the issues of taxes, spending, appropriations and whether Congress or the President should take the lead in putting the federal financial house in order.

The big battle comes Wednesday when the House acts on a fourth emergency appropriation bill to put money into the coffers of government agencies whose regular appropriations for the year that started July 1 have not cleared Congress. Their emergency funding expires next Monday.

The shape of the emergency measure is to be molded at a meeting of the Appropriations Committee today.

Republicans are trying to tie to the bill a requirement that the President cut spending for the fiscal year by at least $5 billion. The President claims that assignment can't be carried out until all the appropriation bills become law.

The GOP came within eight votes of winning when they tried that approach to enforced economy Oct. 3.

Appropriations Committee Democrats are convinced the Senate would not accept the GOP plan. That could cause a House-Senate deadlock that would be difficult to break by next Monday.

They huddled with Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., and tossed around several alternative proposals Friday but reached no decision.

There was strong sentiment, however, for a requirement that the President freeze government employment until Congress finishes its appropriation tasks.

If the Senate went along, that would give Congress a breathing spell to finish the appropriation bills and give the Appropriations Committee time to draft another measure taking back some of the money Congress has appropriated this year and in past years.

Four appropriations bills, all compromises, could be disposed of this week, leaving only a few in the legislative mill. The compromises carry money for military construction programs, the Department of Transportation, the space program and a score of other agencies.

Mahon has promised to present later in the session a general bill rescinding specific appropriations already made. He takes the position that Congress, not the President, should decide where cuts should be made.

The GOP proposal for a mandatory $5 billion reduction doesn't spell out the areas for cuts.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee has not changed his insistence that before his group will even consider the President's request for tax increases, there must be concrete evidence of sharp cuts in spending. His committee colleagues support his position. It doesn't care who wields the economy axe so long as it falls heavily.

McCormack Is Honored

BOSTON (AP) — The first public school in Boston to be named for a living person was dedicated Sunday in honor of House Speaker John W. McCormack, 75.

McCormack said the honor "moves me more deeply than any honor that has come my way in a lifetime of public service."

The school, in the Dorchester section, opened last month. It includes grades four through eight.

Pennsylvania Tax Increase

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Raymond P. Shafer signed a bill today raising the state tax on cigarettes 5 cents per pack. The tax boost is expected to add $55 million in state revenue, to be used for numerous programs.

Shafer signed the bill at 12:01 a.m. and it took effect immediately.

Hugh E. Flaherty, the governor's legislative secretary, said Shafer signed the bill 11 hours ahead of a planned ceremony in the Capitol because many dealers planned on raising their cigarette prices right after Sunday midnight.

A FAST-MOVING REAGAN, Michael, 22, tries his hand at the wheel on Lake Havasu in Arizona. The son of California's Gov. Ronald Reagan expects to drive a three-engine craft in the World Out-Board Championships Nov. 25 and 26.

Travel Guide for Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has issued a travel guide for the care and handling of touring congressmen.

Its "Handbook for Congressional Foreign Travel" declares congressional visits abroad are good for America and all foreign service posts bear a major responsibility for providing VIP treatment, including a welcome at the airport by the U.S. ambassador.

The handbook says that visiting congressmen like to be given on arrival at the airport envelopes containing the local currency equivalents of $5, $10 and $20 for quick exchange.
